industrial exhibit, and the best corn exhibited will be brought to Salem for the Marion county annual corn show to be held in Salem December 4 to 9. This was practically decided on at the meeting held at Donald Saturday evening, at a meeting of the farmers was addressed by L. J. Chapin and C. S. Howe.

The Republican Marion county central committee, on account of the absence of several members did not officially meet last Saturday although a call had been sent out for a meeting to be held to organize and elect officers. No business was transacted. The committee will probably get together next Saturday.

Although only two years old, Margaret Metzger, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Louis W. Metzger, 375 Division street, was the cause of considerable excitement yesterday morning about 11 o'clock. It seems that Margaret was enjoying the sunshine playing on the sidewalk in front of her home, and being of a friendly disposition, proceeded to walk home with some children on their way from Sunday school. As soon as the child was missed, the parents notified police headquarters. From the description given the chief, word was sent out of the lost child, but it was not until about 1:30 that information came that a child of the description given, was having a fine time playing in North Salem, near Madison and Broadway.
